

Corporate Security Protecting Personnel and Property

Course Objectives:

- Informing participants of modern methods in the field of security and safety and strategies for protecting buildings and facilities.
- Informing participants of tools, methods and ways to protect buildings and facilities from fires and risks.
- Enabling participants to prepare emergency plans for facilities and buildings and workers in them.
- Developing participants' skills in dealing with others.
- Gain participants basic security skills and predict potential dangers that security personnel may be exposed to while performing their duties.
- Recognizing the concept and roles of security in facilities.
- Working to raise the efficiency of the security man's performance and providing him with the necessary security and field skills.
- Training participants on modern skills and methods in the field of occupational security and safety.

Course Outline:

Module One: Basics of Security and Safety Concepts Between Theory and Application:

- Defining security and reviewing the elements of public and internal security.
- Security principles and their relationship to implementation strategies in sensitive security facilities.

EXPERT

EXPERT & PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE FOR TRAINING & CONSULTATIONS

- Sources of collecting security information and dealing with it within the principles of confidentiality and caution.
- The modern concept of facility security and the reflection of meaning on achieving priorities.
- Security strategy and human needs theory compared to institutional needs
- Investigating security conditions in facilities, whether highly sensitive or crisis management.
- Preparing security programs for facilities in their various tactical stages.

Module Two: Security Engineering:

- General rules followed for the purpose of maintaining security.
- Criteria for security excellence and successful distinction for supervisors of sensitive sites.
- Skills of prediction and organized creative thinking for security personnel.
- Dangers related to sensitive facility guard controls.
- Predicting risks that threaten personal security.
- Predicting risks related to speech and communications security.
- Predicting risks related to terrorist operations.
- Predicting risks related to ordinary crimes

Module Three: Strategic Skill for Security Leaders in Sensitive Facilities

- Analysis of risks of various types to identify causes and results.
- Analyzing and anticipating problems.
- Executive planning skills and vision of the strategic security dimension
- Individual procedures and security department procedures in dealing with risks
- The integrated model of strategic planning with its three dimensions: preparation, implementation, and control of a security strategy

EXPERT

EXPERT & PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE FOR TRAINING & CONSULTATIONS

- Identifying mental skills and mastering physical skills specific to security leaders.
- Deep specialization in studying psychological cases of complex and special personalities.

Module Four: Basic Administrative Functions of Security Leaders

- The concept of leadership, leadership theory, characteristics of a successful leader, the difference between a leader and a manager
- The seven skills of the most effective leadership while ensuring the confidentiality of information.
- The role of leadership in forming and maintaining an effective security team and the stages of formation.
- Application of the five management functions in security leadership.
- In-depth strategic planning and future extrapolation.
- The importance of setting material goals and procedural plans for security teams.
- Short and long-term security planning and preparing the security plan in its various stages (recruitment and organization, training, evaluation, control, operation).
- Setting policies to prevent internal thefts from facilities as well as protecting various encroachments on public and private property.
- Security supervision activity for each job.

Module Five: Developing Communication Skills and Activating Security Sense Perceptions in Vital Facilities

- The scope of security supervision for each job with activating the facility's internal guarding and security system.
- The weapons used by terrorism and the relationship and duties of security officers in dealing with them.
- Modern security and guarding methods.

EXPERT

EXPERT & PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE FOR TRAINING & CONSULTATIONS

- Emergency plan and how to prepare it.
- Overall review of emergency response.
- Facility protection plan against sabotage, intrusion and infiltration incidents.
- Applying innovation in analyzing ideas and transforming them into solid security plans.

Location	Conrad Hotel
Start Date	05 January 2025
End Date	09 January 2025
Fees Before Discount	3500 $
Special Discount	15% (To nominate Three participants)
Fees After Discount	2975 $